FOREWORD

We, the class of '58, have now reached the first climax of our lives. The time has come when we must go out and stand face to face with the world.

We hope that this edition of "The Kanistean" will always bring back pleasant memories and recall to us the happy moments of our days in Canisteo Central.

SCHOOL SONG

Oh, chant out the song of C.A.

Sing the glory that is her today.

The triumph of might against might Tells which color wins the fight.

Oh, long may her great emblem wave

'Tis the symbol of the staunch, the true, the brave

The Red and the White may they wave

Victorious, Victorious, o'er us forever.

Though far o'er this world we may stray

We shall never forget old C.A.

The scenes that today we hold dear

Shall come back to us through the years.

Oh, long may her great emblem wave

'Tis the symbol of the staunch, the true, the brave,

The Red and the White may they wave

Victorious, Victorious, o'er us forever.

DEDICATION

MRS. WILLIAM LA VALLE

A little word in kindness spoken,
A motion or a tear,
Has often healed the heart that's broken,
And made a friend sincere.

*I hope that your senior year will be a "bed-better" year.

PETER KOTHEN

March 5, 1942 to May 26, 1957

"They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above;
A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast
To the places they blessed with their presence and love."

SENIORS

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the class of '58 being of unsound mind and sizeable body, declare this to be our Last Will and Testament:

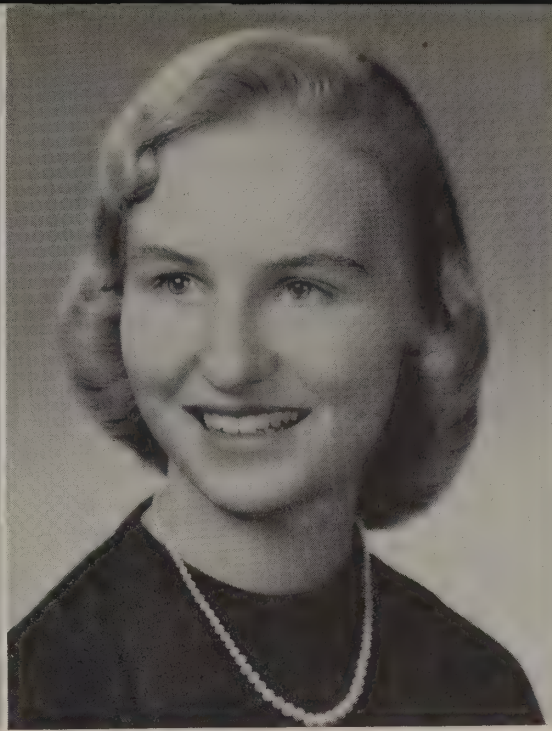

Karen Kurtz wills her trained fleas to Bob Wilkinson. Ellen Day leaves to make room for Harold Day. To Gary Forshee, Nancy Allen leaves her sister. Ronny Follansbee leaves his empty candy bar wrappers to Penny Whitford. Mary Lou Bardeen wills her public speaking ability to Barbara Barash. Bill Hughes leaves Jerry Dieter his fool proof excuses from school. Stan Arthur leaves his Cherry bombs to Sid Decker. Richard McMIndes leaves his tongue chewing technique to Tom Kinney. To the treasurer of the future senior class, Dave McCray leaves his pen, ink, and check book. Jim Condon leaves his height to Gretchen Stephens. Ron Cook leaves his butterfly collection to Delores Martin. Curt Crandall wills his way with Mr. Crandall to Barb Hill. Duane Comstock bequeaths his profile bread to Walter Marlatt and Bill Whitford. Joyce Teribury leaves the Teribury walk to Barbara Mahoney. Millie Green leaves her excess energy to Hank Burdick. Bernard Drake leaves his old jokes to Erma Vanderhoef. To Ken Wheaton, Rod Freeland wills his muscles. Elaine (Harriet) Hallett willingly leaves her name to Harriet Hallett. Lynnda Brooks wills all her old letters to Linda Campbell. Barbara Allen leaves her ability to sound like a frog to Fred Williams. Theresa Emerson leaves her crazy piano music to Erin Dillon. To Reed Pierce, Virginia Stephens leaves her sports ability. George Herbert leaves his harem to Bob Preston. Sandy Smith leaves her flute to Andy Skillman. To the whole Junior class Bill Peterson gives four bottles of hydrogen sulfide. Carol Davis leaves her quiet ways to Natalie Lonsberry and Cynthia Jamison. Arlene Kamenuk leaves her ambitious nature to Shirley Bush. Chuck McMullen bequeaths his Don Juan ability to Louie Galleazo. Charles Kent leaves his old typing certificates and a bottle of ink remover to Kay Bosard. David Burns leaves his ability to blush to Dale Wilson. Jerry Bush wills his acting ability to Jan Maulhollen. Elmer Hallett wills his 8th period hall wanderings to Dave Jack and Craig Ackerman. Richard Warriner leaves his overdue homework to Charles Gardiner. Shirley Cook leaves her empty milkshake containers to Diane Scott. Joan Callahan wills her extra birthdays to Larry Taylor. Dave Greenfield leaves an old pair of khakis to be divided among all the dogs on his paper route. Richard Smith leaves his seat in Physics class to either Bill Thompson or Jerry Brown depending on which one wishes to repeat the course. Elaine Roberts leaves her place in a square dance set at the grange to either Sandra Caward or Carolyn Morgan. Bonnie Wood leaves her sense of humor to Pete Etu. Joyce Cone and Beatrice Stewart leave their seats in homeroom to Sandra Bacon and Francis Amidon. The whole senior class chipped in for a can of hair spray for Bob Sanborn. Daryl Knapp leaves his "Christmas Tree Treasure Map" to Sue Gay and Connie Leach. Madaline Wicks wills her book on bird calls to John Jamison. Carol Campbell and Carol Etu leave their first names to Carol Monell. Vicki Ross receives Glenyce Beyea's old report cards. Shirley Stocum leaves her blond rinse to Larry Travis. Shirley Stone leaves her empty gum wrappers to be divided between Diane Young and Sharon Powers. Bernice Mullen wills her poems on farming to Lynn Brotzman. To Ada Woodworth, Patty Woodworth leaves one less Woodworth. To all those not previously mentioned, Nancy Carrington leaves copies of the poem "Why Study."

CLASS POEM

Twas only a dozen years ago
We first stole a glance at our school,
    We entered with wonder Hoping not to blunder
And tried to appear calm and cool.

As the days rolled on into many weeks
We began to realize our goal.
    Our first was to read
    Our second to write
With many other things to fill our soul.

We worked hard but had entertainment too,
Which we enjoyed to much extent.
    Ball we did play
    Movies we did see
And practiced being "lady" and "gent."

By the time we had reached our fifth and sixth grade Quite grown up we did seem.
    A party or two here,
    A dance or two there,
Oh, a great future we certainly did dream.

By the time seventh and eighth came along our way
We began to settle down a little.
    Homework was increased,
    Responsibility heavy
A mark on our lives we'd begun to whittle.

Eighth grades regents soon came hopping along.
Which most of us passed with cheer.
    The turning point had come
    And we started to run
In the direction of our Freshman year.

That year was spent in careful planning
To earn money we knew we should save.
    Skating parties were held
    And candy was sold
To start the long road we must pave.

We happily remember our Sophomore year
Where we spent our time at the games.
    Selling candy and pop
    Potato chips and gum
To lines as long as trains.

Also, we'll never be able to forget
The night of our Sophomore Hop.
    My-Oh-My how it did snow
    All day and all night
And we suffered an inevitable flop.

In our Junior year we tried harder than ever
To make our year a success.
    We had cards to sell
    And stationery too,
Our treasury we'd begun to fatten and dress.

Along in the middle of October
We had our "Harvest Moon Dance".
    The crowd seemed large.
    The people were gay
As around and around the floor they did prance.

And now we have reached our Senior year
The most important to us all.
    The years have fled
    The time seems short
Soon all of us the world will call.

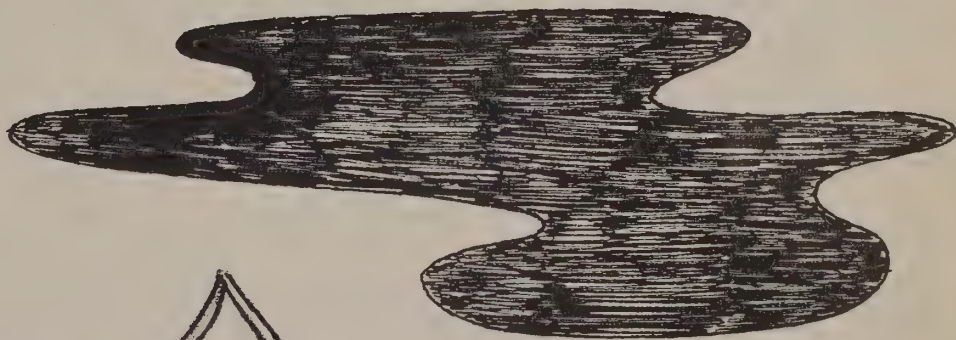

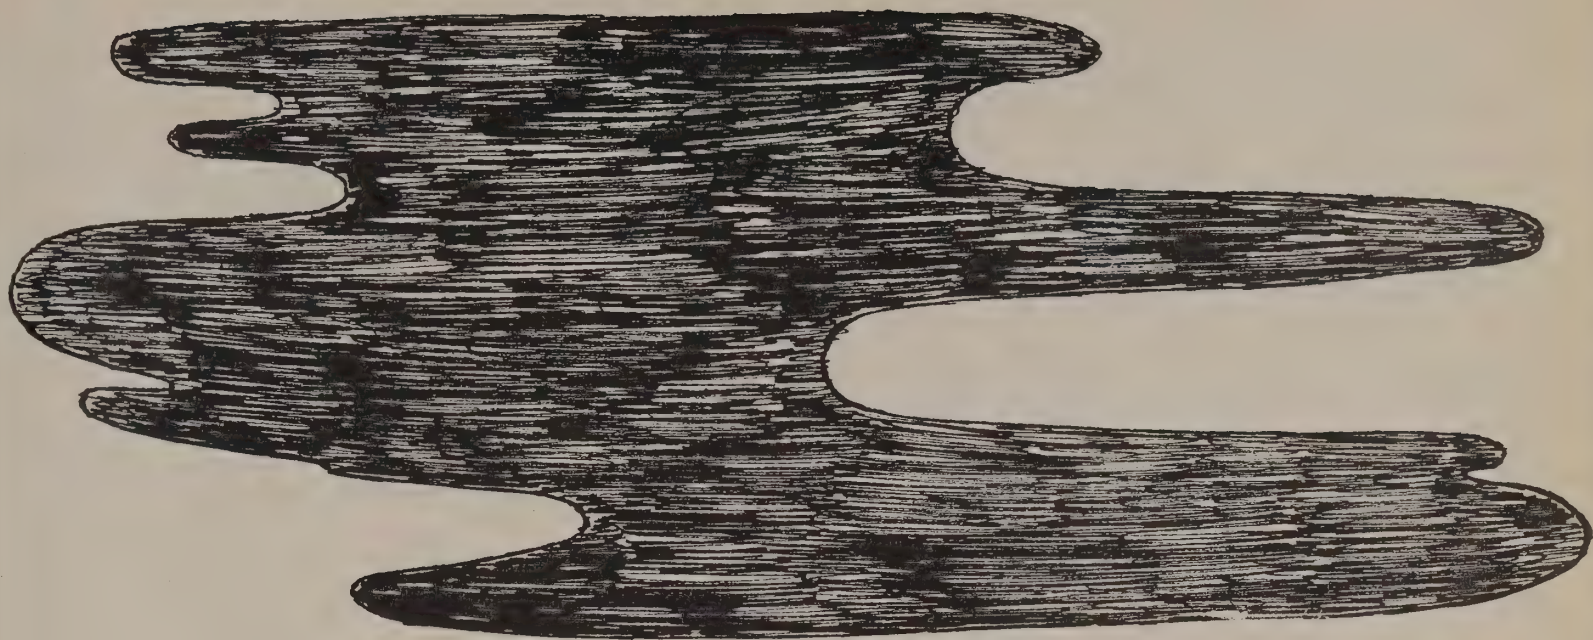

We started early with the magazine sale
Soon to be followed by our play.
    "My Friend Irma",
    Upset by the flu,
Had to be postponed to another day.

Another big event which started quite early
Was our yearbook and all its work.
    Many nights we did stay,
    But rewards it will pay
When always in our minds it will lurk.

We are now looking forward to our Senior Ball
And most important, Our Washington Trip.
    Our days will be gay
    As spring comes our way
Then along we will go with a zip.

Sneaking up on us is our night of graduation
When "good-by" we must say to our friends.
    "Hello" we'll greet the world
    "To you we've been hurled"
But we'll never forget C.C.S. and its trends.

knowing you. I am sure in school you had a lot of fun and I sure hope you learned a lot.

I don't know you very well for, but what I do know of you I think you're very trustworthy and you are sure a good friend to everyone.
I'm sure this year has gained me a friend. Please, stay nice at you are now.
I wish you success and God be with you,
your almond gal
Cat,

Hi Dave,
Well, it's been a pretty good year. We've had lots of fun together.
Maybe we'll be seniors next year. I can't wait to get out of this penitentiary.
I bet I'll always take well, you'll always remember.
Bless you always Love, Donda

Dear
Seniors Best of luck always to a swell guy. You will get the senior next year. And I'll a little. I'll get them maybe some days. Remember to good a memory. I'll a "just" nancy
love,
Donda

Dear Donda We've had loads of fun together.
I hope to be the best of friends next year.
Maybe you are a real swell guy & you deserve what ever you go into. Best of everything Be a real swell fellow.
Love & Good + My best Bless you always,
Coozie

Dear,
"hovie",

Well, as you said there is a lot we can write, I can't say as this is the year to say it though. What I mean is next year we'll have our own little place to sign.

As for this year though, believe me I won't forget what you have done for me. Really I think the "Smith" Case is the funniest of all. It didn't seem funny then though.

Really I think we have a great bunch of guys both in Hornell & Canisteo. It's nice that we have the same friends.

I'll sign off for now and save the rest for next year. Be good and God Bless you!

Love,
Dee

To Joelle (Jojo)
Since I have known you, you have been a swell friend indeed. Thanks for letting me ~~know~~ <sup>know</sup> all the good times at ~~your~~ <sup>your</sup> home and house, even at the ~~socials~~ <sup>socials</sup> and you and yours. and be good and if you can't be good ~~be~~ <sup>be</sup> careful Joelle, Linda

Es Excuse writing.
